

Him Praise Now One And All!

Oh heav'n and earth, now praise your God,
His majesty applaud.
Of all creation He's the Lord,
all honour Him accord.

His Word is always our support,
its depths to be explored.
His love and wisdom are profound,
His mercy does abound.

When sin obscured His heav'nly light,
He saw our dreadful plight.
His love then sent to us His Son,
Who over sin has won.

He gave His life to save our soul,
for our sins paid the toll.
And at His Father's side still pleads,
His grace to heaven leads.

Who can surpass the love of Him
Who faced a task so grim?
A love that never let us go,
so we, like Him, may grow.

Oh heav'n and earth, sing to Him praise
with grateful hearts ablaze
in answer to His loving call Him praise now one and all!

Adrian Vermeulen-Miller