

He Makes No Mistakes!

Voice descant verse 3 & 5

3- Though night be dark and the it fog may seem that day will
5- For by and by the fog will lift and all things

1- My Fa - ther's way may twist and turn, my heart may
2- My che - rished plans may go a - stray, my my hopes may
3- Though night be dark and it may seem that day will
4- There is so much I can - not see, my eye - sight's
5- For by and by the fog will lift and all things

3- ne - ver break; I'll pin all my faith, my all on
5- plain He'll make. And all the way, though dark to

1- throb and ache. But in my soul I'm glad I
2- fade a - way, but still I'll trust my Lord to
3- ne - ver break, I'll pin my faith, my all on
4- far too dim; but come what may, I'll sim - ply
5- plain He'll make. And all the way, though dark to

3- Him, for He He makes no mis - take.
5- me, He made not one mis - take.

1- know, that He makes no mis - take.
2- lead, for He does know the way.
3- Him, for He makes no mis - take.
4- trust and leave it all to Him.
5- me, He made not one mis - take.

Text: A.M. Overton (1932). A retired pastor, who lost his beloved wife, wrote this incredible poem during her funeral service.
Slightly modernized text & descant: Adrian Vermeulen-Miller. Music: John Ambrose Lloyd (1878-74). Tune: Abergelle.
