7.6.7.6.7.6.7.4.7.4

1- When you find it a bur - den, to go a - lone through life, then 2- Don't go a - lone, your Mas - ter, would live with - in your heart, He'd 3- All you, blind, deaf, down - trod - den: lift up your heads re - joice! Heed 4- Don't fret a - bout the hurt you feel! The hurt He bore was more! When 5- Blest are all those who re - a - lize, that He a - lone is Lord! No 6- And then, when all ad - ver - si - ty, this earth has ev - er known, is

1- know there is a Sav - iour, Who'll me - di - ate your strife. Life oft is full of 2- be with you for - ev - er, and give you a new start. Who can dry tears like 3- now the call of Je - sus, He is your sur - est choice! His yoke is al - ways 4- pay - ing for the sins we do, they sure - ly beat Him sore! So great His love, He 5- mat - ter what their lot may be, they now know their re - ward. He'll see them through what - 6- ba - nished for e - ter - ni - ty, and Christ is on His throne, you'll sing the prais - es

1- sor - rows, don't shed too ma - ny tears! For God would love to help you, ask 2- Je - sus? Sure - ly there is not one! So turn your eyes to Je - sus, to 3- ea - sy, His bur - dens will be light. So why de - lay your an - swer? He 4- gave His life, to buy God's grace for all! Ac - cept His gift and come a - live, do
 5- e'er their need, and bring them safe - ly home. Lean on His mer - cy and you'll be: no 6- of our Lord, your joy - ous feet will trod, hence - forth, sur - roun - ded by the saints, in

1- Him Who hears. For God would love to help you, ask Him Who hears.
 2- Him be drawn. So turn your eyes to Je - sus, to Him be drawn.
 3- knows your plight. So why de - lay your an - swer? He knows your plight.
 4- heed His call. Ac - cept His gift and come a - live, do heed His call.
 5- more a - lone. Lean on His mer - cy and you'll be no more a - lone.
 6- sight of God. Hence - forth, sur - roun - ded by the saints, in sight of God.
