1- We glo - ri - fy Your name, oh Lord, for Your e - ter - nal love. That 2- There is no Friend great - er than You, Your love o'er all su - preme. Your 3- It was fore - told that You would come, that You would die in pain. The 4- You've prom - ised to re - turn one day, will then Your King - dom claim. For-

1- though we are with sin much flawed, You still came from a - bove. And 2- grace and mer - cy are so true, for You came to re - deem. You
 3- third day You would death o'er - come, You did not die in vain. Your 4- ev - er then with us to stay, we'll glo - ri - fy Your name. Oh

1- to re - turn us to our God, You have laid down Your life. 't Is 2- came Your Fa - ther's will to do and did not count the cost. Your 3- sac - ri - fice o - pened the way to God for all man - kind. Washed
 4- Lord, we pray, come speed - i - ly to make all things here new. We'll

1- You Who our sal - va - tion wrought, our way out of our strife.
 2- path of sor - rows al - ways knew, still came to save the lost.
 3- in Your blood, all sin - ners may e - ter - nal life now find.
 4- sing our prais - es joy - ful - ly, for You, a Friend so true.
