

Your's Is The Glory

♩ = 100

8.6.8.6.8.8.8.8.4.6.

1- You came down to a world in sin from heav'n - ly or - i - gin. Your 2- Peo - ple res - pond - ed far and wide, but then You did col - lide with 3- Al - though the State did not find fault, they still did Him as - sault. The 4- Your 's is the glo - ry, Your 's a - lone, Je - sus, now on Your throne. The

1- Fa - ther sent You down to save, His on - ly Son He gave. Re -
 2- tem - ple lead - ers and their kind, their sta - tus in a bind. To 3- peo - ple He had served so well, now cru - ci - fy Him yell. His 4- grave could nev - er hold You down, Your cross gave You a crown. You,

1- li - gious lead - ers paid no heed, the world was o - ver - come by greed. But 2- them You were a re - al threat and soon their pride - ful minds were set. You 3- back was lashed, a crown of thorns, a mock - ing robe and mock - ing scorns, be - 4- Lord, our Sav - iour, are our King, read - y Your foll' - wers home to bring. You

1- in o - be - dience to His will, sins You for - gave and 2- were tried by the San - he - drin, the on - ly man Who 3- hold ye all, here is Your King, the peo - ple: cru - ci -
 4- prom - ised to re - turn one day, for - ev - er then with

1- cured the ill. You served them all, the peo - ple great and small.
 2- did not sin. They used the State, a cross be - came Your fate.
 3- fy! shout - ing. There on that hill, His life - blood they did spill.
 4- us to stay. Praise be Your Name, for us to earth You came.