

He Has Risen From The Grave!

Christ, our Lord, He has arisen,
He has risen from the grave.
Even death could not imprison,
He has risen and is safe.
Tell the world He'll reign forever,
seated on His throne with God.
With His sacrifice for mankind,
all His children He has bought.

Lamb of God, despised, rejected,
over death victorious.
Lord of lords and King o'er kings,
reigns in heaven glorious.
Do rejoice and raise your voices,
celebrate, our Lord is King.
Tell all peoples, all the nations,
loud hosannas to Him sing.

Yes, our Lord will be returning,
one day He will claim His own.
He will come with might and power
to bring all His children home.
Hate and terror He will banish
and His peace will rule on earth.
All indwelled now by His Spirit will enjoy their second birth.
