

There Comes A Day

His Second Coming

There comes a day that He 'll return for this His children do yearn.
His earthly Kingdom He will claim,
for evermore this earth reign.

Refrain:

That day will come, just God knows when,
we must for Him be waiting.
That day will come, we must be then with joy anticipating.

And when He comes this earth to reign,
removes all suffering and pain.
Then all who here in Him believe from Him their crown will receive.

That day will full of glory be,
the Lord of Lords we will see.
To Him we 'll raise a mighty hymn,
with glorious music praise Him.

After a hymn by J.de Koning.
