I ONCE WAS A STRANGER

1- I once was a stran - ger to God and His grace and 2- I once was a stran - ger to God and His love and 3- When you hear His cal - ling, oh an - swer His call, for

1- thought all my trou - bles a - lone I could face. A life - time a - 2- saw not the bles - sings He sends from a - bove. He called me and 3- when on your own you will stum - ble and fall. His grace and His

1- head, all the things I would do, but found all the glit - ter was 2- called me, but I would not hear, a - voi - ded His voice e - ven
3- mer - cy, His love are pro - found and He will keep cal - ling un -

1- false and un - true. Still God loved me, still God loves
2- though He was near. Yes, God loved me, yes, God loves
3- til you are found. Yes, God loves you, yes, God loves

1- me, His mer - cy and grace does ev'n me now em - brace.
2- me, I now hear His voice and in Him may re - joice.
3- you, so heed soon His voice and you too will re - joice.
