

Jesus Is Waiting

Jesus is waiting, oh sinner for you.
Calling so tenderly: "Come to Me now."
He will redeem and then comfort you too.
Give Him your heart now and give Him your vow.

Refrain:

Flee to Him quickly, He 's waiting for you,
don't be foolhardy, He 's beckoning now.
Jesus is waiting, waiting for you.
No time for tardiness, come do it now.

Sinner, your way may seem cheery and gay.
Dark seems the path that a Christian must tread.
But you are oh so wrong: sunny 's the way that leads to heaven and life up ahead.

Come then to Jesus, His love is for you,
Come to the Saviour for He calls you too.
Hurry to Him, He will then set you free.
Do it before your life, down here, may flee.

Text: van den Wende
English paraphrase: Adrian Vermeulen-Miller