

He Will Be There!

Come to the feast, for all is ready now,
the bread, the wine, His body shed for all.
Come feast and live, renew your vow,
your Lord is calling, hear His call.

He came and did that which we never could.
He came to give His life, so we might live.
Before the world in order stood,
He planned to come and to forgive.

Come now to feast and of His mercy taste,
renew your faith and learn about His grace.
Come join, there is no time to waste,
come to His table, take your place.

Soon it is o'er, the symbols disappear,
your life in Him renewed will last fore'er.
He is your Lord and always near,
where'er you go He will be there!

Adrian Vermeulen-Miller