

Tell Now To Ev'ry Tribe And Nation!

Come and rejoice, for Christ our Lord is risen,
come let us sing a new song to our King.
Come see the tomb, He has escaped His prison,
Jesus arose, your glad hosannas sing.

“Fear not, for I will always now be with you,
each pray'r you pray, do pray it in My name.
Your God will hear, abundantly will bless you,
nor will He ever put your faith to shame.”

Go now and tell to ev'ry tribe and nation,
to young and old, tell all the joyful news:
“Jesus is King, in Him there is salvation,
eternal life with Him, but you must choose.”

Glorious the day when our Lord is returning,
time without end His Kingdom here to reign.
All of His saints for that day now are yearning,
heaven and earth forever His domain.
