

Come, Let Us Worship

Come, let us worship God above for He is worthy of our praise.
His mercy and His steadfast love,
He cares for us in all His ways.
Do honour Him with heart and soul,
for only He can make us whole.

Come, let us fellowship with Him,
in pray'r and praise with Him abide.
Our life without Him would be grim,
we need Him daily as our Guide.
We praise His name and bring Him laud,
He is our Father and our God.

Our Lord is God, our Friend in need,
our present Help, our Shield and Rock.
Gracious and merciful indeed,
the Shepherd of His faithful flock.
It is in Him we may rejoice and praise Him with a joyful voice.

Adrian Vermeulen-Miller