

He Lives In Glory Now

What Jesus for mankind has done
was started in a stall.
Almighty God sent us His Son
to save us from our fall.
He told us of His Father's love,
He healed the sick and lame.
And with a blessing from above
for all lost souls He came.

But man in his misguided pride
would not accept God's Son.
Our Lord was crucified and died
for what mankind had done.
The only Man Who did not sin,
rejected by His own.
And yet He did the battle win
to bring His children home.

The Son of Man o'ercame the grave,
to live forevermore.
't Is for mankind His life He gave
and all our sins He bore.
He's promised to return with might
to rule the earth as King.
All evil will be put to flight
and all His praise will sing.

Adrian Vermeulen-Miller