

AWAKE YOU SLEEPERS

1- A - wake all who sleep there, rise up from the dead, Christ Je - sus would then be your 2- A - wake now with speed all who sleep there in sin: the night has long yield - ed to 3- A - rise from the dead then, oh sin - ner, and live, so Christ can hence - forth light your 4- Blest are all the saints who now walk in His light, their Sav - iour has raised who were

1- new light. So calls you the Sav - iour, Son of the God - head, ere 2- dawn - ing. The light of God's grace, with such joy - ous be - gin, for 3- life's path. A - rise from the dead, He will sure - ly for - give, or 4- long dead. No mat - ter how oft - en the day yields to night, the

1- He jud - ges all with His God - ly might. A - wake and rise up, for the 2- cen - tu - ries on earth is shin - ing. So great is your call - ing, so 3- choose to face God in His ho - ly wrath. The Sav - iour still calls you, 't is 4- dread of the dark - ness from them has fled. "A - wake all who sleep there, rise

1- risk is so great, so why not choose life o - ver death as your fate?
 2- ho - ly your stake, the hours are few now, a - wake then, a - wake.
 3- still not too late; a - rise from the dead now, He'll soon seal your fate.
 4- up from the dead," so calls from God's heav - en, of His Church: the Head.