

ALL WILL BE NEW

♩ = 100

7.7.7.7 Refrain: 8.6.8.6

1- Now all the flow - ers still die, the sun goes down in the sky.
 2- Now you feel some - times a - lone, sor - rows may cause you to groan.
 3- Now you may oft - en run short. plans you may have to a - bort.
 4- One day the sun will not climb, God's light will then for you shine.
 5- None will there hung - er or thirst, God's glo - ry al - ways comes first.
 6- Long now for th'e - ter - nal throne, that soon our Lord comes to stay.

1- None can live with - out eat - ing, with - out drink life is fleet - ing.
 2- This world will of - ten in - trude, when look - ing for sol - i - tude.
 3- You just have to stop fret - ting, some needs you are not get - ting.
 4- All dark - ness will then be gone, vic - to - ry will there be won.
 5- Sor - rows and pain ev - er banned, hap - pi - ness will know no end.
 6- We'll sing Him praise ev - er - more, on the e - ter - nal shore...

Qui - et, pa - tience, all will be new, the heav - ens and the earth.

For our God will all things re - do, the heav - ens and the earth.

Text: M. v.d. Plas. English paraphrase: Adrian Vermeulen-Miller. Music: W. ter Burg (b.1914).

Multiple duplication of single sheets permitted for free distribution only. For inclusion in hymnals or other publications contact AVM&Associates.

© Copyright (Johannes de Heer & Zn.) Unison, Hilversum, The Netherlands.

Website: newhopemusic.com/hymns.htm

E-mail: AdrianAVMA@AOL.com