

Your Saviour Is Calling

Today, not tomorrow,
oh please, do not wait:
tomorrow you may be
eternally late.
Your Saviour is calling,
is calling you now.
Oh do heed His calling
and answer somehow.

Refrain:
Now is the time,
now is the time.
Come now to your Saviour
while there still is time.

It may be you don't know
the words you should say.
So just use your own words,
but do it today.
He does know what you mean
when your heart cries out.
And that He will answer,
you don't have to doubt.

Oh that you may know Him,
we fervently pray.
The joy that you will know,
when He comes to stay.
't Will alter your outlook:
new life you have won.
For your life with Jesus,
forever goes on.
