

You May Go Just As You Are!

Salvation and His Second Coming

Jesus beckons, do not wait,
go to Him and celebrate.
He is offering life immortal,
and His Kingdom is eternal.
You may go just as you are,
take some steps, it is not far.

Jesus is your greatest Friend,
He will lead you by your hand.
He laid down His life for sinners,
now in Him all can be winners.
In three days He rose again,
Son of God and Son of Man.

He is in His Father's home,
pleads for sinners at His throne.
He would be your Mediator,
plead your case to your Creator.
Go now, answer to His call,
be forgiven once for all.

With His Spirit He will guide,
all who in Him do abide.
He the Way, the Truth, the Life is,
offering all life and forgiveness.
Lest you be forever late,
go to Him now, do not wait.

He will come upon a cloud,
that He promised and avowed.
He will gather all His children
and all evil will be stricken.
Maranatha, sing Him praise,
to Him loud hosannas raise.

Adrian Vermeulen-Miller