

One Church On One Foundation

One God, of all Creator,
the universe His own.
His Son, our Mediator,
did for our sins atone.
The Author of salvation,
He loved us, loves us still.
Now, in a new relation,
true joy will be our fill.

Pay heed now, ev'ry nation
and tribes of ev'ry tongue.
His offer of salvation,
it is for old and young.
No need to court disaster,
to grieve or suffer pain.
Our Lord, He is the Master,
He will return to reign.

God's Son, the Church's Bridegroom,
will o'er all nations reign.
Then deserts are in full bloom,
banned is all sin and pain.
That day we are awaiting,
when Christ will reappear.
All will be jubilating,
when 't is His voice they hear.

One Father, one creation,
one universe for all.
One Church on one Foundation,
will answer to His call.
One in our faith and worship,
one family in praise.
One heaven with true kinship,
where all their anthems raise.

Adrian Vermeulen-Miller