

Grant Me Eyes, Lord, You To See

Grant me eyes, Lord, You to see
and a mind from sinning free.
Grant me ears Your Word to hear,
so Your will for me is clear.
Grant me hands to do Your work,
never let me duties shirk.

Grant me shoulders broad and strong,
helping those to You belong.
With Your blessings from above,
fill my heart now full of love.
Giving witness with my tongue
to the old and to the young.

May my feet be strong and swift,
carrying Your precious gift
to all those who have not heard
what You've promised in Your Word.
Lord, Your promises are true,
I am free because of You.

So that I can always cope,
fill my being full of hope.
Ev'ry day make my heart burn
for the day of Your return,
when the darkness of the night
flees from Your eternal light.

Adrian Vermeulen-Miller