

Follow the Saviour

Follow Him softly, wherever He may lead,
follow the Saviour, He'll show you the way.
Though often times it may seem dark and grey,
not of your choosing, follow with speed...
where He will lead, where He will lead.

Follow Him softly, wherever He may lead,
He knows your limits, He'll guide weary feet.
Though seemingly it may lead to defeat,
yet it will never force your retreat...
for He will lead, for He will lead.

Follow Him softly, wherever He may lead,
even when lost in the darkest of night
He is surrounded by glorious light.
Your road is safe, but you must take heed...
follow His lead, follow His lead.

Follow Him softly, wherever He may lead,
always be willing, you must never wait,
not far ahead you will see Heaven's gate,
where you will enter, joyful indeed...,
that you were faithful, followed His lead.
