

When The Saviour Is Appearing

When the Saviour is appearing
in glory on earth,
all His children will be cheering
their dear Saviour's worth.

Refrain:

Oh the joy and the singing
around Jesus throne.
All their praises are bringing,
forever now home.

Yes, the Master does then gather
from far and from near,
all His foll'wers altogether
who His voice then hear.

For the Saviour knows no East, West,
no South and no North.
And He knows all of His children
and calls them all forth.

Black and white He will be calling and colours between.
At His feet they will be falling,
a marvellous scene.

In the meantime be expecting
each day and each hour.
For He comes when unsuspecting with might and with pow'r.

In part a paraphrase on a hymn in the Johannes de Heer Songbook
English text: Adrian Vermeulen-Miller