

It Is Our Shepherd Who Is Leading

♩ = 80

8.7.8.7.8.8.8.7.8.7

1- "Tell us pil - grims where you're head - ing, to a far and dis - tant land?" 't Is our 2- "Storms and dark - ness may be com - ing, are you not af - raid a - lone?" 't Is our 3- "Tell us pil - grims what you'll find there as your por - tion in that land?" We will 4- "Tell us pil - grims, may we come too on your jour - ney to that land?" Yes, come

1- home - land we are go - ing, trust - ing God and hand in hand. O - ver
 2- Shep - herd Who is lead - ing, we will nev - er be a - lone. Our Lord 3- all re - ceive a crown there and a gown from Je - sus' hand. On His 4- join us, you are wel - come, come a - long, give us your hand. For - ward

1- moun - tains and through val - leys, all the Church of God now ral - lies. 't Is our 2- Je - sus will be guid - ing, He will be our light pro - vid - ing. E - ven
 3- throne we will all see Him, and e - ter - nal - ly there praise Him. With the 4- all, no loo - king back - wards, al - to - geth - er we go heav'n - wards, Je - sus

1- Mas - ter Who is call - ing, call - ing all His chil - dren home. And His 2- through the storms and dark - ness, He will safe - ly bring us home. E - ven
 3- an - gels we will serve then: God, om - nip - o - tent, un - seen. With the 4- Christ will in - tro - duce us, seat - ed on His King - ly throne, with the 1- call is quite en - thrall - ing, des - ti - ny: our Fa - ther's home.

 2- through the dee - pest dark - ness, we will reach our Fa - ther's home.
 3- an - gels we will praise then, our Cre - a - tor, al - ways been.
 4- joy - ous an - gels' cho - rus wel - com - ing God's chil - dren home.