

Take Us, Break Us, Fill Us, Send Us!

We have come into Your presence to beseech You earnestly
for this world's divine deliv'rance,
send Your Spirit presently.

Fill us with Your Holy Spirit,
grant us courage to be bold.
Make each one of us a prophet,
tell the world what must be told.

Unsaved souls are still abundant,
send us out Lord with Your Word.
Lift the fog now with a stormwind
of Your Spirit, undeterred.

Many calling themselves Christians
in this world afar off stand.
Father give us all Your summons,
carry out Your Son's command.

Make us care for one another,
wake us and revive us all,
work Your vineyard altogether,
in obedience to Your call.

Take us, break us, fill us, send us
in this world so full of sin.
Tell the world through our true witness and with joy bring many in.

In part based on a hymn by Johannes de Heer
English text: Adrian Vermeulen-Miller