

Put Your Trust In Him

When you 're feeling hopeless,
all 's looking grim,
think then of His fairness,
always call on Him.
Never do fear,
for your Lord is near.
After dark of night
comes a morning bright.
Though storms may batter,
do not despair:
Ignore all the clatter,
your Lord is fair.

God always protects you,
for He is just.
So upon each dawn new,
put in Him your trust.
Burdened by grief,
seek with Him relief.
Ev'n your greatest plight,
can't withstand His might.
In daily living
He saves from strife.
He is all forgiving,
helps you survive.

After a hymn by: P.J. Mouton
English paraphrase: Adrian Vermeulen-Miller