

I Will See Jesus

I will see Jesus in all of His might,
radiant with beauty and bright!
Then I can thank Him, He came from above,
can you imagine such love?
Glory, glory for me,
glory, glory for me.
Jesus I'll see and I'll walk at His side,
He will forever with me then abide.

He bore much hatred and pain all for me,
died on a cross, set me free.
Talked to His Father, forgave me my sin, promised He would take me in.
Glory, glory for me,
glory, glory for me.
Jesus I'll see and I'll walk at His side,
He will forever with me then abide.

There I will find all my fam'ly in Christ,
ever now immortalized.
Singing God's glory in th' heavenly choir,
wearing white robes for attire.
Glory, glory for all,
glory, glory for all.
Jesus is there and we'll be at His side,
and we forever with Him may abide.

I can hear singing at the crystal sea,
blood of the Lamb bought them free.
All of creation then joins in the feast,
late comers are not the least.
Glory, glory for all,
glory, glory for all.
Jesus is there and we'll be at His side,
and we forever with Him may abide.

In part after a Dutch hymn of unknown origin.
English text: Adrian Vermeulen-Miller.