

Jesus, Give Me A Smile

Lord, come along as I walk through my life,
I need Your strength.
When I 'm alone, I am beset by strife,
falter at length.
When You 're with me, abiding through each day,
I feel Your love and cannot go astray.

You are my Guide, my Saviour, and my God,
You are my Friend.
Lend me Your hand and I will stumble not,
upright will stand.
I can avoid the pitfalls on my way,
for You 'll be there and You will be my Stay.

In all I do, teach me Your Truth and Way,
so I may learn,
to love mankind and for lost souls to pray,
help me discern.
You died for all, and I must never judge.
Against my foes, I may not hold a grudge.

Teach me to love, as You have first loved me,
teach me to love.
Patience I need, the kind You have for me,
patience indeed.
And above all, Jesus, give me a smile,
in kindly deeds, to go the extra mile.

Adrian Vermeulen-Miller