

Teach Me Lord

Teach me Your way, oh Lord, teach me Your way,
more of Your power grant, teach me Your way.
Make me Your daily ward, steady my walk, oh Lord,
that in Your light I may, follow Your way.

When fear assails my heart, teach me Your way.
When worries me besiege, teach me Your way.
Painful and joyful days, stormy and sun-filled days,
let me in You rejoice, and hear Your voice.

In all this life may bring, teach me Your way.
Happy and sad times, Lord, You never sway.
No matter Satan's might, You give me strength and light,
You help me persevere, You I revere.

Whatever me betide, teach me Your way.
Be 't few or many years, teach me Your way.
Completing my sojourn, my soul for You will yearn, death I no longer fear, You will be near.

Text: Johannes de Heer
English paraphrase: Adrian Vermeulen-Miller