

The Fourth One In The Fire

S.E. Anderson

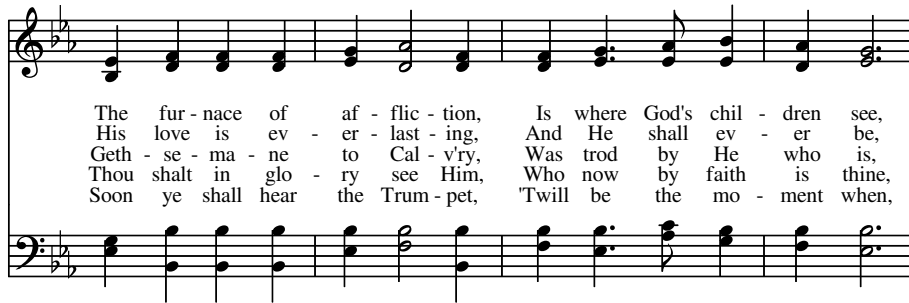

"I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction." Is. 48:10

Think it not strange, be - lov - ed, When tri - als sore be - tide,
Fear not, for He is with thee, Thy bur - dens He doth know,
Should Sa - tan bring a - gainst thee, The fear - some gates of hell,
A lit - tle while af - flict - ed, Then glo - ri - fied for aye,
He to this end will keep you, Ye blood - bought flock of God,

For God hath so ap - point - ed, His own He thus would try;
Thy sor - rows and temp - ta - tions, He car - ried as His own;
Or sin seek to o'er - throw thee, Press on, for all is well;
From earth's op - pres - sing sha - dows, Shall dawn e - ter - nal Day;
Each one to Him is pre - cious, And gra - ven on His palms;

The fur - nace of af - flic - tion, Is where God's chil - dren see,
His love is ev - er - last - ing, And He shall ev - er be,
Geth - se - ma - ne to Cal - v'ry, Was trod by He who is,
Thou shalt in glo - ry see Him, Who now by faith is thine,
Soon ye shall hear the Trum - pet, 'Twill be the mo - ment when,

The Fourth One in the fi-re, With - in their com - pa - ny.
The Fourth One in the fi-re, Thy ev - ery step to keep.
The Fourth One in the fi-re, Who ev - er - more doth live.
The Fourth One in the fi-re, Where shin-eth faith re-fined.
The Fourth One in the fi-re, Shall your af - flic - tion end.
